

Research Technician

- Bachelors degree or higher. 1-3 years work as a laboratory technician with prior experience in:
- Providing laboratory support for animal studies to include handling, injections, and health checks of mice.
- Performing sterile cell culture including propagation, purification, and enumeration of viruses.
- Handling and processing experimental samples to include following established methods, establishing new methods and maintaining accurate records.
- Working independently and prepare technical and scientific reports as required and will be responsible for daily organization and operation of laboratory tasks.
- Reviewing data to ensure accuracy and proper quality control compliance.